New Minister of Transportation & Infrastructure – Government of Alberta

Premier Rachel Notley and her Cabinet were sworn in on Sunday, May 24 in Edmonton. The accompanying announcement notes, “the new Cabinet is lean and efficient, and is firmly focused on solving the challenges that face Alberta. The newly sworn-in Ministers will partner with Alberta’s job creators – in energy, forestry, agriculture, high-tech, tourism and small business – to grow and diversify our economy.”

Hon. Brian Mason (Edmonton-Highlands-Norwood) was named Minister of Transportation, Minister of Infrastructure and Government House Leader.

WESTAC congratulates Minister Mason and looks forward to working with him and the Alberta Government.
